

DIY Photography started in 2006 as a place for gear loving photographers (hence the name), it has quickly evolved into a place of inspiration, education, gear chat and a place for photographers to hang out.

With a strong focus on educational content, we feature some of the best and most inspiring photography found worldwide, exiting behind the scenes footage, gear reviews and the best photography tutorials to be found on the web.

CONSIDER THE NUMBERS

DIY Photography is visited by over 360,000 unique photographers monthly and growing

THE DIY PHOTOGRAPHY TEAM

We are looking for long term relationships with businesses that love photography and photographers. We are not looking for ad networks or placement resellers.

File type can be jpg, png, and tasteful animated gif or soundless, non obtrusive Flash animation. You can host the file, or we can host if for you.
